The 4th Annual American Meatball Eating Championship

Bartolini's Restaurant & Catering has officially announced the beginning of Meatball Madness and will be opening it's doors for individual qualifying rounds starting May 23rd, 2009. The American Meatball Eating Championship will occur on Sunday July 19th during the St. Christopher Church 62 Annual Fiesta in Midlothian Illinois. The primary mission of this event is to raise awareness and funds and proceeds will go to two local food pantries. Individuals seeking to qualify for this contest can come to suburban Chicago's best Italian Restaurant (Bartolini's) and make a donation and then eat 12 meatballs. The top 20 fastest individual qualifiers will earn a spot at the American Meatball Eating Championship.

Expected to compete will be Returning Champion and Record holder Furious Pete Czerwinski, along with 2007 champions Tom Goose Gilbert.
